The Ancient History of the Distinguished Surname

* KIRK ****

Though shrouded by the mists of time, the chronicles of Scotland reveal the early records of the Norman surname Kirk which ranks as one of the oldest. The history of the name is interwoven within the colourful plaid of Scottish history and is an intrinsic part of the heritage of Scotland.

Diligent analysis by professional researchers using such ancient manuscripts as the Domesday Book (compiled in 1086 by William the Conqueror), the Ragman Rolls, the Wace poem, the Honour Roll of the Battel Abbey, the Inquisitio, the Curia Regis, Pipe Rolls, the Falaise Roll, tax records, baptismals, family genealogies, and local parish and church records shows the first record of the name Kirk was found in Cumberland where they were seated from very early times and were granted lands by Duke William of Normandy, their liege Lord, for their distinguished assistance at the Battle of Hastings in 1066 A.D.

Variable spellings of the name were typically linked to a common root, usually one of the Norman nobles at the Battle of Hastings. Your name, Kirk, occurred in many references from time to time, and variables included were Kirk, Kirkhoe, Kirkaugh, Kirko, Kirkoe, and many more. Scribes recorded and spelled the name as it sounded. It was not unlikely that a person would be born with one spelling, married with another, and buried with a headstone which showed another. Preferences for different spellings were derived from a branch preference, to indicate a religious adherence or sometimes to show nationalistic allegiance.

The family name Kirk is believed to be descended originally from the Norman race. The Normans were commonly believed to be of French origin but were, more accurately, of Viking origin. The Vikings landed in the Orkneys and Northern Scotland about the year 870 A.D., under their King, Stirgud the Stout. Later, under their Jarl, Thorfinn Rollo, they invaded France about 940 A.D. The French King, Charles the Simple, after Rollo laid siege to Paris, finally conceded defeat and granted northern France to Rollo. Rollo became the first Duke of Normandy. Duke William who invaded and defeated England in 1066, was descended from the first Duke Rollo of Normandy.

After the Conquest, Duke William took a census of most of England in 1086, it became known as the Domesday Book. By 1070, William's nobles were growing restive, dissatisfied with their grants of land. William took an army north, and laid waste most of the northern counties. King Malcolm Canmore of Scotland offered refuge to these nobles, granting them land. Later, King David, about 1160, also encouraged his Norman friends to come north to join the royal court and obtain lands.

The surname Kirk emerged as a notable Scottish family name in the county of Cumberland where they were recorded as a family of great antiquity seated with manor and estates in that shire. The original name Kirkhaugh was acquired by the Viponts, a noble family which came from Vipont near Lisieux in Normandy. In 1258 William of Kirkhaugh assumed that name and the lands and estates. They moved north into Scotland to the lands of Tuchadam and Chappel in the barony of Dunscore in Dumfriesshire. They later acquired the lands of Holywood and they intermarried with the Griersons of Barjarg and the name became shortened to Kirk and Kirke. Some branches of the name retained the name Kirkhoe. Sir Patrick Kirk of Perth had moved north and by 1600 even further north to Inveraray. They were registered as a border Clan in 1590 and in 1597. Of note amongst the family at this time was Sir Patrick Kirk of Perth.

The surname Kirk contributed much to local politics and in the affairs of England or Scotland. Later, in the 16th, 17th and 18th centuries the country was ravaged by religious and political conflict. The Monarchy, the Church and Parliament fought for supremacy. The unrest caused many to think of distant lands.

Settlers in Ireland became known as the "Adventurers for land in Ireland". Essentially, they "undertook" to keep the Protestant faith, and became known as "the Undertakers". In Ireland they were numerous in Ulster and county Louth and in the former became known as the Quirkes.

The news about the attractions of the New World spread like wildfire. Many sailed abourd the fleet of sailing ships known as the "White Sails".

In North America, migrants which could be considered kinsmen of the surname Kirk, or variable spellings of that same family name included Christopher and Judith Kirk settled in Virginia in 1635; Grafton Kirk settled in Maryland in 1738; John Kirk settled in New England in 1698; James Kirke settled in Virginia in 1656; Christopher Kirke settled in the Barbados in 1663; Richard and John Kirke settled in Virginia in 1651; Thomas Kirke settled in Virginia in 1638.

From the port of arrival many settlers joined the wagon trains westward. During the American War of Independence some declared their loyalty to the Crown and moved northward into Canada and became known as the United Empire Loyalists.

Meanwhile, the family name was noted in the social stream. There were many notables of this name, Kirk, Grayson Kirk, American Professor; Peter Kirk, British Journalist; Roger Kirk, American Diplomat; Russell Kirk, American Writer; Samuel Kirk, American Professor of Education; Dame Lucy Kirk; Alexander Kirk, U.S. Ambassador; Professor Geoffrey Kirk, Greek; Hon. Herbert Kirk, Northern Ireland Politician.

In the process of researching this distinguished family name we also traced the most ancient grant of Arms from the branches which developed their own Arms.

The most ancient grant of a Coat of Arms found was:
Red with a gold crozier crossed with a gold sword and at the top a green thistle.
The Crest was:
A crozier and a dagger crossed.
The ancient family Motto for this distinguished name was:
"Optimum Quod Primum"

2. The Whites struck back in a hurry. Starting at the 30, fullback Weldon Holley blasted for six, then quarterback Billy Hooper broke around the right side, shook off a tackler and ran 64 yards for the tying touchdown.

3. The No. 1 White team moved in front the next time it got the ball. Hooper, Holley and Allen Jones were the trouble-makers in this drive. Jones, playing at left halfback for the first time, struck for eight yards, then for seven. Hooper, on a deceptive keeper play, picked up 13. Holley and Jones picked up another first down, then Hooper passed to Excell Amyett bling five yards for the second. Matthews was the game's late star, although the competition at that time was questionable.

An all-sophomore backfield of Jones, Herod, Morris and Guess (operating for the Blues) drew Sauer's praise after the end of the conflict. "That backfield has good speed, good passing and good power, and they're all sophs," Sauer noted.

Among linemen turning in good performances were guards Dan Miller, Dugan, Pearce and Willie Froebel, tackle Kirk Kuykendall, and ends Norman Caruthers, Porter Smith, Dave McNair and Henry Gremminger.

while Baylor went the first eight minutes without connecting on a field goal attempt.

A jump shot by Powell just as the buzzer sounded gave Texas a 14-9 first quarter advantage.

Bears Start Back

The Bears warmed to their task rapidly, as Strasburger, Bailey and Dalton led the way with free shots and field goals. Strasburger's two-pointer from under the basket cut the Steer margin to one point at 20-19 with three minutes to go in the half.

Philip Kidd and Jiggs Buchanan hit long one-handers, but Strasburger, White and Dalton kept the pace for Baylor. Saunders' two free shots gave Texas a 27-25 lead in the final seconds, then Bailey was fouled while shooting. With a chance to tie the score, he hit the first charity toss but missed the second, and the two teams went to rest with Texas leading, 27-26.

In the first 30 seconds of the third quarter Baylor tied the score, and in the next 30 seconds the Bears went ahead.

For the rest of the period, the teams battled point for point, with Baylor having slightly the better of it. At one point Texas nosed ahead, 42-41 on Ford's jump shot, and again they tied it up, 45-45, on Ford's two free shots. Otherwise the Green and Gold held a thin advantage, with Strasburger hitting the key field goals and Bailey plunking in the free shots.

The Final Quarter

As the final quarter started, Baylor held a 47-45 lead, which Albert White promptly pushed to 48-45 on a gratis shot. Dickson hit on a whirl shot and Bailey looped in a long one and the Bruins lead mounted to 53-47.

Now Texas became desperate as the pressure mounted and the fans howled. Sanders, Ford and Powell took over the scoring duties completely, but their best only matched the pesky Bruins. With three minutes to go, Baylor led by 58-53 and heartbreak was in sight for the Orange and White.

In a frenzy of shooting, Ford and Powell cut the score to 62-58, then Powell stole the ball and drove in for two more. That was as close as Texas was to get.

Bailey, Jordan and Dickson kept feeding in the free shots, while jittery Texas missed a couple, and time ran out as a Longhorn fouled Bailey in a wild scramble for the ball.

SMU Murders Aggies, 92-48

DALLAS, Feb. 6 —UP—Southern Methodist broke its three-game losing streak Saturday night be defeating winless Texas A&M 92-48 in a lop-sided victory which provided practice for every man on the Mustang team.

The Aggies scored the first four points in the game — but they were never ahead after that.

Coach Doc Hayes' Ponies, still trying to regain their early season pace, were sparked by Derrell Murphy, who produced 16 points for the winners. SMU's Joek Krog made 15 counters.

The game leaves Southern Methdist with a 3-3 conference record and a slim mathematical chance of winning the conference race.

Stephen F. Austin Dumps Rice, 77-75

NACOGDOCHES, Texas, Feb. 6 —UP—Little Stephen F. Austin College assumed a giant killing role Saturday night and dusted off by a 77-75 score the second-place Southwest Conference team, Rice Institute.

Earlier this season, Rice beat Austin 22 points at Houston. Austin has a mediocre 2-2 record in the "little" Lone Star Conference.

Gene Schwinger, Rice's scoring ace, dumped in 25 points and set a new three-year scoring record for Southwest Conference players. It built his total for three years of varsity play to 1,127 points — 16 points better than the 1946-48 record established by George Kok of Arkansas.

Five Open Matches On Gloves Program

By EARL GOLDING
Times-Herald Sports Staff

The Open fighters swing into the spotlight for the first time tonight, and it'll be another feature between Baylor and Texas A. and M. College.

There'll be five Open bouts on tonight's 26-bout card, and boxers from Aggieland will make up half the scrap on four of them.

Both lightweight scraps will send Aggies against Bears.

Everett DeShea of Baylor meets Cadet James Hebert in one 136-pound tussle, and Bear George McCoy takes on Aggie James Earle in the other. The winners will tangle in the finals Monday.

Johnny Burk, the touted newcomer to Waco, makes his debut in a local Gloves ring against Paul Vass, Baylor swifty now attending Baylor. In the two light-heavy fights, Don Walker of JCAFB meets stumpy Ed Castillo, and this will be a Mutt-and-Jeff affair. Airman Walker will tower a head taller than Castillo, the quick veteran from A. and M. and Temple, and a former State finalist. In the other 175-pound semi-final bout, Baylor's Bill Black goes against A. and M.'s Paul Terrill.

Another feature bout tonight sends Crawford lightweight Billy Golson against Hubbard's Jerry Simmons.

Last night's action picked up steam in a big way, with five of the night's 26 bouts winding up before the three-round limit.

Finishing up their work ahead of time were high school lightweight Jerry Simmons of Hubbard, high school welter Charles Graves of Waco High, high school heavyweight C. B. Johnson of Waco High, novice middleweight Howard Pharr of Waco and Baylor, and junior Bill Kirk of La Vega.

Hubbard's Simmons scored his second abbreviated victory last night by stopping a teammate, J. B. Jiminez, in the second round. Waco High's bully-boy Johnson eliminated Crawford's outweighed Ed Hixson. Pharr won by a first-round TKO when Cleo Wiggett of Waco ran out of gas in a wild initial round, and Kirk, the surprising little La Vega slugger, stopped Paul Alvarez of Gatesville State School midway in the first round.

The busy high school division again produced the hottest action. Glenn Busby and Robert Sydow, both representing La Vega, advanced to the semifinals ni the featherweight class, and winning with Simmons in the lightweight bracket were Crawford's Billy Golson and Hubbard's James Horn.

Golson made his debut in the tourney with an impressive but very close decision over Waco's classy lefty, Richard Flatt. It was one of the night's better bouts.

Crawford scored another victory when Elliott Mattlage ousted GSC's John Matthews in one of the four welter scraps. Advancing with Mattlage were walloping Carlos Bravo of Waco, Jerry Martin of GSC, and Charles Graves, the Waco High wild man.

James Padgett, a lanky Wacoan, outpointed James Connally's Ernie Waicosky in another of the top battles that could have gone either way. Waicosky rallied strongly in the third but couldn't overcome Padgett's early lead.

In other novice bouts, middleweight James Duke of Groesbeck beat Robinson's Charles Saffle and Jack Hale of Baylor won from Johnny Cain, heavy-hitting ace of GSC.

The high school melee between Waco's Flatt and Crawford's Golson was a whirlwind affair of a million punches. Both boys sailed in at the opening bell and when it was all over were still punching. This one had the fans standing.

Little Bravo, the shortest high school welter in the field, demonstrated one of the biggest punches in getting by Waco Tech's switch-hitting Carl Ray.

Waco's twelfth annual Golden Gloves tournament, one of the most explosive in history, roared into the semifinals Friday night with five of the night's 26 bouts winding up ahead of the three-round limit.

Finishing up their work ahead of time were high school lighteight Jerry Simmons of Hubbard, igh school welter Charles Graves f Waco High, high school heavyweight C. B. Johnson of Waco High, novice middleweight Howard Pharr of Waco and Baylor, and junior Bill Kirk of La Vega.

In tonight's semifinal program in Heart O' Texas Coliseum, there'll be 26 more scraps, including the first appearance of the Open boxers. It is expected to be the finest night of action thus far in the gala classic.

Hubbard's Simmons scored his second abbreviated victory last night by stopping a teammate, J. B. Jiminez, in the second round. Waco High's bully-boy Johnson eliminated Crawford's outweighed Ed Hixson. Kirks feted with party

Bill and Wanda Kirk of Appleton were honored on their 30th wedding anniversary with a surprise dinner at the home of their daughter, Pam Killins, and her husband, Daniel, of Appleton.

The Kirks were married Dec. 23, 1955, in Lubbock, Texas, by Bill McClusky. Mr. Kirk is the son of Jewel Kirk of Whorton, Texas, and the late Bill Kirk Sr. Mrs. Kirk is the daughter of Lester Roberds of Gumlog and Pauline White of Atkins.

The dinner was hosted by the Kirks' three daughters, Mrs. Killins, Theresa Fowler of Oak Grove and Cathy Simpson of Russellville.

A traditional family recipe for "Candy Cake" was the anniversary cake and completed a ham dinner.

Those attending, in addition to the guests of honor and hosts, included Amos Fowler, Keith Payton, Sharon, Melissa and Christy Fowler of Oak Grove; Steve, Stephanie and Andrea Simpson of Russellville; Kirk and Daron Killins of Appleton and Pauline and J. D. White of Atkins.

Sherry

Daddy,

Our loving, so loving Father & husband. Oh how our hearts grieve for you. We know you wouldn't want the endless tears and heartache, but Daddy - that's part of love. It's a love so great that it will always bond us all together forever. You have enriched our lives with your wisdom, integrity, and knowledge. Your wit and charm has given us so many laughs.

There will never be a man on earth that could ever attempt to be your match. When God made you, the mold was thrown away.

You worked so very Hard to make us comfortable & to provide for us. You never deprived Mother of anything that was in your power to give her. I've yet to know any man that ever loved a woman as much as you loved my mother. And I've yet to know any woman that ever loved a man as much as she loves you. A love so deep and tender that words cannot possibly describe.

You are so very handsome. Your gorgeous blue eyes have given us so much love, tenderness, and comfort. They will gleam through our hearts forever. Such a face of wisdom ~~that~~ and knowing. And you loved to tease. In fact I'd say you were just darn right onry.

You ~~to leave us with~~ have left behind a legacy that will live through each of us and your beautiful grandchildren. ~~There is a little~~ ~~are~~ ~~parts of you in each of us.~~

You will continue to live through each of us. It will keep us strong and knowing. You were the greatest teacher & role model.

You always said ~~there was nothing two~~ that a man was only as good as his word & you lived by that soundly. You couldn't tolerate a liar or a cheat. Hard work was your life. I've heard you say so many times that the only way a man would ever get ahead was to work. And that Daddy was a lesson well taught. You have enriched our souls with all the morals & values you taught us.

Daddy your friends of many have been so much comfort. Anyone that you called a friend was a person of many fine qualities. You always said that if a man had one friend, a true friend, in a lifetime that you were lucky & Daddy you are so fortunate.

These last years have made you so very, very, happy. You loved your cattle business and farm with all of its challenges. You loved the challenge. And so many nights of coon hunting with your friends & us brought you such joy.

Daddy, you are my father, friend, and a rock of gibralter. I've been richly blessed.

Your pain has ended. You will have ever lasting peace and serenity within the Glittering Gates of heaven with PaPa, Grandmama, & Daddy Bill.

We say good-bye for now. We miss you, we love you, and we thank you for giving us so much of you.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; ~~they~~ thy rod & thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; & I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

God will Bless & Keep
You Daddy
I Love You

GOD hath not promised
  Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
  All our lives through;
God hath not promised
  Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
  Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
  Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
  Light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
  Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy,
  Undying love.

It's A Surprise Birthday Party for Wanda Kirk Dixon

January 14, 2006
1:00-3:00
Crow Mountain Baptist Church
Fellowship Hall

Mom has never been surprised with a party before and now is the time, a time to come and join us with a warm celebration of her life. She is not aware of anything as of yet and I told Gary to just get her to the church and we would take care of the rest! Ha! If you will not be able to attend please send her a birthday card and just mail it to me and I will have a display set up for her cards! I hope to see all of you there for Mom.

Have a great day!

Mrs. Terry Lee Payton

Miss Kirk, Mr. Payton Say Vows

The Assembly of God Church at Hector was the setting Sunday afternoon for the wedding of Miss Thresia Ann Kirk and Terry Lee Payton.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bill G. Kirk Jr. of Route 3, Atkins, and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Payton of Route 4, Russellville.

The Rev. C.K. Bull officiated at the 2 p.m. double-ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with baskets of greenery flanking two three-branched silver candelabra holding smoke blue tapers. The communion table held a footed two-tiered silver and crystal bowl filled with daisies.

Wedding music was provided by Sue Carruth, pianist, and Donna Grice, who sang "I'll Walk Beside You" and "The Day of the Golden Promise".

Candles were lit preceding the ceremony by Roy Wygal of Hector, cousin of the bride, and Mike Butler of Russellville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of sheer organza fashioned with cluny lace covering the bibbed bodice and fitted sleeves, which featured two ride ruffles at the wrists.

The princess skirt was trimmed in matching lace and featured a white organza bow in the back. The skirt fell into a chapel-length train.

A lace-covered bandeau held the bride's cathedral-length lace-trimmed veil. She carried a bouquet of white and yellow daisies atop a white Bible. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls borrowed from her grandmother.

Martha Rita Churchill of Hector was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Cathern Raye Kirk and Pamela Kaye Kirk, sisters of the bride.

They wore gowns of pastel blue, pink and yellow dotted Swiss. Each wore a white floppy hat and carried a basket of daisies.

Flower girls Dawn Michelle Simmons of Hobart, Ind., and Shelly Rena Price of Dardanelle, cousins of the bride, wore dresses of pink and blue dotted Swiss and carried baskets of daisies.

Ringbearer was Johnny Carl Sain Jr. of Atkins, nephew of the groom.

Gerald Taylor of Hector served as best man. Groomsman was Glenn Wilson of Jerusalem. Ushers were Steve Simpson of Russellville and Chris Vincent of Appleton.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kirk chose a floor-length gown of emerald green quiana knit with a V-neckline and empire waist. The groom's mother wore a street-length A-line dress of white knit.

Reception

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the Hector Presbyterian Church. Hostesses were Bobbye Swaim and Kathy Freeman.

Guests were greeted by the bride and groom and their parents.

The bride's table was centered with a silver and crystal bowl filled with daisies and silver candlesticks holding pale blue tapers.

Wedding cake decorated with daisies and silver hearts was served with punch by Becky Hale of Pottsville, aunt of the bride, and Cherly Wygal of Hector, cousin of the bride.

Assisting at the reception were Toni Bachman and Pat Corcoran of Russellville.

For travel, the bride wore a street-length princess style linen dress trimmed with natural-colored lace.

After a honeymoon in Eureka Springs, the newlyweds are residing at Route 3, Russellville. The bride is employed at the Russellville Fabric Center and the groom is employed at Leonard's Hardware.

Out-of-town wedding guests included:

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Simmons and daughters Diane, Sandra, Suzanne and Dawn of Hobart, Ind.; Mrs. Ollie Kaye Mitton of Broken Arrow, Okla.

Mrs. Ladelle White of Midland, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. David Payton Jr. and family of Tarkio, Mo., and Richard Payton of Fairfax, Mo.

CATHERINE RAYE KIRK

Mrs. Howard Steven Simpson

Mr. Simpson, Miss Kirk Say Vows In Hector Rite

Miss Catherine Raye Kirk and Howard Steven Simpson exchanged wedding vows in an Aug. 30 ceremony at the Hector Assembly of God Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bill G. Kirk Jr. of Route 3, Atkins and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Simpson of Route 2, Russellville.

The Rev. C.K. Bull officiated at the 7 p.m. double-ring nuptial rite. The altar was flanked by two silver five-branched candelabra. In the background was an arrangement of white gladioli and white and yellow pom pom mums.

Miss Rena Boland, pianist, played traditional wedding music and accompanied the vocalist, Sherry Aday, who sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Twelfth of Never."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a wedding gown of candlelight crepe and silk organza with a sheer yoke empire bodice and bishop sleeves trimmed with Cluny lace.

A wide ruffle trimmed the flared skirt and flowed into a chapel train. Her veil of illusion, trimmed with lace, was fastened to a juliet cap of Cluny lace and seed pearls.

The bride carried a bouquet of white and yellow pom pom mums with a white Bible.

Charlotte Aday was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Pam Kirk, sister of the bride, and Debbie Butler, cousin of the bride.

Miss Aday was attired in a long pink dress. The bridesmaids wore long gowns of pink and yellow dotted swiss. Each attendant carried a single long-stemmed yellow carnation.

Kim Roberds, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a long dress of yellow dotted swiss and a floppy hat and dropped petals from white pom pom mums.

Keith Simpson, brother of the groom, carried the rings atop a blue heart-shaped pillow.

Tom Simpson, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Mike Butler, cousin of the bride, and Winston Aday.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kirk chose a floor-length mint green gown with butterfly sleeves. The groom's mother wore a light green street-length dress.

Reception

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the church. Hostesses were Bobbye Swaim and Kathy Freeman.

Forming the receiving line were parents of the couple and the bride and groom.

The bride's table was decorated with an arrangement of white gladioli and yellow pom pom mums and a candlelabra holding five white tapers.

The four-tiered cake, trimmed in pink confection roses, was topped with the traditional bride and groom figurine.

Serving were Thelma Ferguson and Charollette Simpson, sisters of the groom. Ranee Epperson assisted.

For her going-away outfit, the bride chose a street-length dress of forest green with butterfly sleeves.

The groom is employed at Milgram Foods.

Among out-of-town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Nowlin of Arizona and Mr. and Mrs. D.W. Coffman of Conway.

Mrs. Daniel G. Killins

Miss Kirk marries in Appleton rites

Pamela Kay Kirk and Daniel G. Killins were married in an evening ceremony recently in the Appleton Cumberland Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. Bob Chronister of Moreland officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bill G. Kirk of Atkins and Mrs. Viola Thompson of Hector and Bert Killins of Dover.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a formal gown of white organza over taffeta. The gown's high neckline was emphasized by a wide crystal pleated ruffle of lace which outlined a V-shaped yoke of re-embroidered illusion. Lace appliques and pearls enhanced the bishop sleeves. A wide crystal pleated flounce of Schiffli lace finished the skirt and extended into a chapel-length train.

Her veil was edged with matching lace and was the same length as the train of the gown. She wore a string of pearls belonging to her mother. She carried a bouquet of yellow daisies, roses and carnations with blue baby's breath and yellow ribbon streamers. She also carried a Bible which had been given to her as a child.

Jansey Hays of Batesville was the honor attendant. Cathy Simpson and Thresia Payton, both of Russellville, were bridesmaids. They wore formal sleeveless gowns of pastel blue eyelet. Each carried a yellow long-stemmed rose.

Lisa Killins of Russellville was flower girl. Scott Killins of Drasco was ring bearer.

Mike Killins of Drasco served the groom as best man. Keith Hamilton of Hector and Jim Lovejoy of Russellville were groomsmen.

Mike Butler of Pottsville, Jim Lovejoy of Russellville and Stephen Bratton of Suffolk, Va., were candlelighters and ushers.

Music was provided by Sue Grashot of Russellville, pianist, and Jansey Hays, who sang "Our Love" and "Evergreen."

Reception

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall immediately following the ceremony.

The bride's table was covered with blue and white lace cloths. Five-branched silver candelabras held candles. The three-layered yellow rose wedding cake featured a yellow fountain. Pineapple punch was ladled from a crystal bowl. Coffee was served from a silver service. Mints and nuts were also served.

The bridegroom's table was covered with brown and white lace covers. Decorations included bride and groom figurines and candles in wooden holders.

Assisting at the reception were: Lori Condley, Kay Launius, JoAnn Cole and Caroline Jones of Hector; Becky Hale of Pottsville and Carolyn Killins of Drasco.

Pam Horness of Hector presided at the guest book. Dana Roberds and Lisa Price of Dardanelle distributed yellow and blue rice bags.

The couple will reside at Appleton. The groom is employed by Bechtel Power Corp. at Arkansas Nuclear One. The bride is a senior at Arkansas Tech University, majoring in biology and pre-veterinary medicine.

Out-of-town guests

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Ollie Kirk Milton of Broken Arrow, Okla.; Mrs. Lucyle Kirk Bratton of Portsmouth, Va.; Stephen Bratton of Suffolk, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Roberds, Dana, Kim and Scott, and Mrs. Norma Price, Leslie, Lisa and Shellie of Dardanelle; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Killins, Scott and LaDawn of Drasco and Jansey Hays of Batesville.

Killins places on national level

Sarah Killins, 15 year old, of the Appleton 4-H club recently attended the National Rabbit Convention at Wichita, Kan.

This was Sarah's first time to show at convention and she placed 3rd in the senior doe class with her Silver Marten rabbit "Candy."

There were over 20,000 rabbits at the show. Sarah has been showing rabbits for nine years and is the daughter of Daniel and Pam Killins of Jerusalem.
